General Reasoning (Cognitive)

Slower Processing
Accepts Simple & Repetitive Work

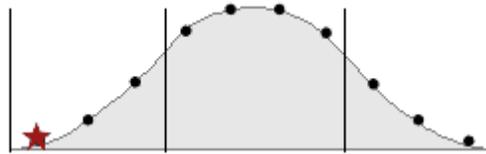

Faster Processing
Needs Intellectual Challenge

- Jay learns new information slower than average
- Better suited for Administrative or Clerical roles that require routine solutions rather than complex problem solving
- Jay should be allowed additional time to learn the job including hands-on training

Question: Tell me about a time when you did not do a task correctly because you had not been trained properly. How could the training have been handled better to suit your learning style?

Conscientious (Organization)

Carefree
Impulsive

Detail Oriented
Dependable

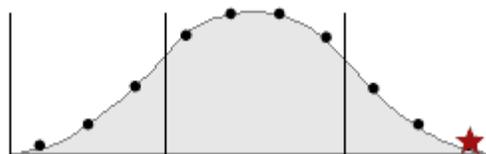

- Jay may allow details to be overlooked
- Generally responds well to interruptions and unexpected requests
- Generally prefers to be in a reactionary role rather than plan and be thorough with details

Question: Tell about a time when you forgot some important details of a project. How did you handle that?

Tough Minded

Cooperative
Agreeable

Direct
Determined

- Tends to be tough minded and assertive particularly when there is a difference of opinion
- Best suited for administrative roles where Jay is expected to deal with confrontation and needs to be able to take action without direction
- Generally comfortable making decisions
- Given the preference to be in control, Jay may have some difficulty taking direction

Question: Tell me about a situation where you and a co-worker did not get along? How did you handle that?

Conventional (Rules)

Open to New Experience
Flexible

Consistent
Structured

- Prefers an environment that is structured and predictable
- Jay tends to be consistent and follow the procedures closely
- May have some difficulty working in an environment where requests are often unique and unexpected such as in a smaller or start-up company
