Lab Technician Summary

General Reasoning (Cognitive)

Slower Processing
Accepts Simple & Repetitive Work

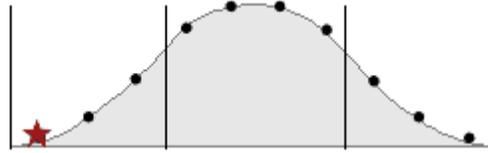

Faster Processing
Needs Intellectual Challenge

- Jay tends to solve problems and learn new information more slowly than others which can make it difficult for them to keep up with job knowledge and changes in procedures
- Should be allowed more time for initial training and for learning new Central Service Technician procedures and operations
- If Jay is properly trained, typically capable of dealing with routine procedures without becoming bored

Question: Tell me about a time when you were asked to handle a new procedure in your job when you had not been trained on it yet. What did you do?

Conscientious (Organization)

Carefree
Impulsive

Detail Oriented
Dependable

Note: Jay's score is in an area that may pose a significant challenge in terms of job fit for many Central Service Technician positions. You may wish to spend extra time reviewing this area and refer to additional follow-up questions provided in the Interview Question Report.

- Jay may appear to be careless and miss important details with instrument procedures and paperwork

Question: Tell me about a situation where you forgot to handle an important detail and it caused a problem. What happened?

Tough Minded

Cooperative
Agreeable

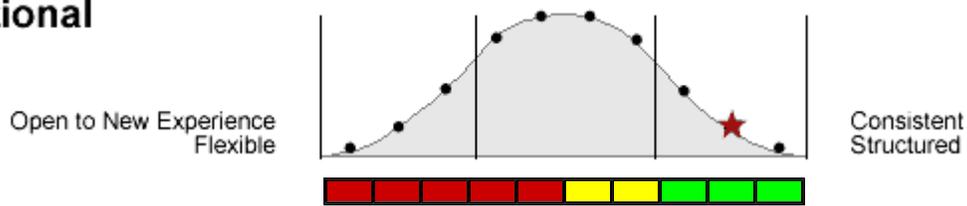

Direct
Determined

- Jay tends to be direct and out-spoken with others
- Jay's direct and tough-minded nature can be helpful in ensuring that policies and operations are being followed properly
- Jay's out-spoken and demanding nature can come across as argumentative and unpleasant
- May have difficulty taking direction from others which can create issues within some Central Service Technician roles

Question: Tell me about a time when you realized that someone was doing something inappropriate on the job. What did you do?

Conventional (Rules)

- Jay is usually very consistent and structured when it comes to following Central Service Technician instrument sterilization standards and other work place procedures
- Jay usually has a high level of follow-through and thoroughness
- May find it difficult to deal with change and will need extra time to adapt to changes made in procedures

Question: Describe a time when you had to deal with several changes in your job all at once. How did you handle it?

Extroversion

- Jay tends to have the ability to listen well which can be very helpful in Central Service Technician roles
- Typically comfortable working alone not requiring a lot of social interaction with others
- Others may find Jay to be quiet and reserved

Question: Describe a time when you had to work with people who loved to talk a lot during the day. How did this affect your productivity?

Stable

- Jay tends to be sensitive which may make it difficult to deal with highly stressful and demanding situations
- In highly stressful conditions, Jay may become nervous and anxious, potentially acting hastily

Question: Many jobs are really stressful and demanding. Tell me about a time when your job was very demanding and because you had to work so fast, you were not able to completely follow a policy or safety procedure. What was the situation?

Team

Note: Jay's score is in an area that may pose a significant challenge in terms of job fit for some Central Service Technician positions. You may wish to spend extra time reviewing this area and refer to additional follow-up questions provided in the Interview Question Report.

- Jay is generally competitive and enjoys individual achievement which may make it difficult to feel motivated in many Central Service Technician roles
- May have difficulty working on a team and being collaborative
- May be better suited for an environment where they are allowed to work independently rather than one where they are expected to be a part of a team effort

Question: Tell me about a time when you were particularly motivated to do your job every day. What was the situation and how were you rewarded for your efforts?

Good Impression (Social Desirability)
