

Date: Oct 3, 2006

Name: Julie Testing
ID: 137903

Server Summary

General Reasoning (Cognitive)

Slower Processing
Accepts Simple & Repetitive Work

Faster Processing
Needs Intellectual Challenge

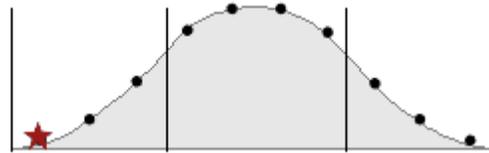

- Julie learns new information slower than average and should be allowed plenty of time to learn the wait staff tasks

- Restaurants that have complex menus and customer requests may be more difficult

Question: Describe a time when you were asked to jump in and start working in a job without any real training. How did it work out?

Conscientious (Organization)

Carefree
Impulsive

Detail Oriented
Dependable

- Easy going nature may cause Julie to overlook details within some wait staff roles

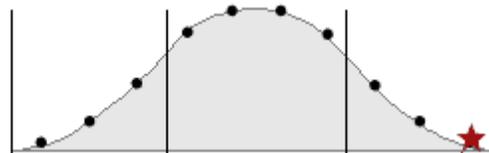

- Better suited to restaurant situations where it is more important to easily react to requests and situations versus those that need planning and careful attention to details

- Important to have processes that ensure that Julie fills out forms or computer screens when critical details must be captured

Question: Give me an example of a time when you forgot to handle some details for a customer and it caused a problem. What did you do?

Tough Minded

Cooperative
Agreeable

Direct
Determined

- Customers may view Julie's direct nature as somewhat pushy

- Tends to be tough minded and may be argumentative with customers particularly when there is a difference of opinion

- Tends to be comfortable asking customers if they want additional items in order to increase the overall sale

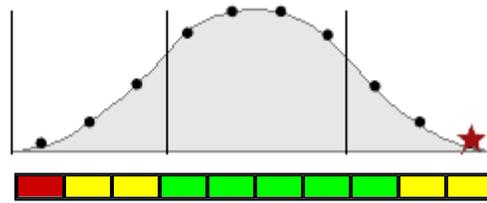

- Given the preference to be in control, Julie may not take direction well

Question: Describe a time when you were too abrupt with a customer because you had become impatient.

What happened?

Conventional (Rules)

Open to New Experience
Flexible

Consistent
Structured

- Prefers roles that are more structured and predictable
- Julie tends to be consistent and follow the procedures closely which can be helpful in many wait staff roles
- Julie may have difficulty working in a restaurant environment where there is constant change and flexibility with menus and day to day tasks

Question: Tell me a time when you became frustrated because you were expected to handle requests that you had not been trained on and didn't know the procedures. What did you do?

Extroversion

Reserved
Listener

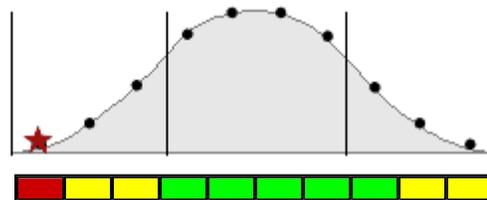

Outgoing
Talker

- Julie tends to be reserved and quiet
- May not be quick to greet customers with a friendly manner
- Better suited for wait staff positions requiring a more conservative approach to the customer and where there are smaller numbers of customers versus high volume situations

Question: Tell me about a time when you were really energized by your work. What were you doing and how many people did you typically deal with every day?

Stable

Sensitive
Anxious

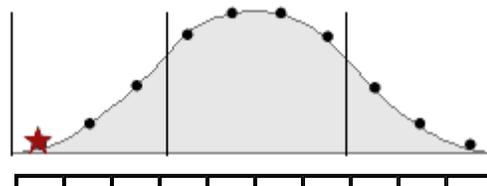

Calm
Stress Resistant

- Julie tends to be sensitive to customer needs and service expectations
- May have difficulty dealing with the day to day stress that can be a normal part of some restaurant environments

Question: Give me an example of a time when you almost lost your temper with a customer. What happened?

Team

Individualistic
Competitive

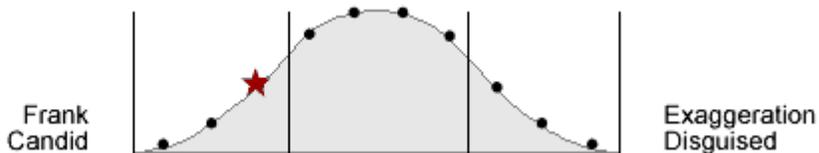

Collaborative
Win-Win

- Julie is typically self-motivated and very competitive
 - May have difficulty working within a team, particularly if the incentives are based on team objectives
- Question: Tell me about a time when your team failed to meet their revenue goal because your other team members wouldn't ask customers to order additional items. What happened?

Good Impression
(Social Desirability)

- Julie's responses have been frank and open

*The participant has scored in the "red zone" in 2 areas.

Overall 61% *

Note: This report represents only a small part of the factors that can be helpful in determining job performance. It is not designed to specifically recommend or not recommend any individual for employment and the ultimate employment decision rests with the Employer.

© 2006 Psychometrics International

Date: Oct 3, 2006

Name: Julie Testing
ID: 137903

Server Interview Questions

General Reasoning (Cognitive)

Question: Tell me about a time when you were expected to solve problems for customers even though you had not been properly trained. How did you deal with it?

Question: Give me an example of when you have been able to think quickly to solve a problem for a customer.

Question: Tell me about a time when you were frustrated because you didn't think you were given enough time to learn your job. What was the situation and what did you do?

Conscientious (Organization)

Question: Tell me about a time when you were late to work and it caused a problem.

Question: Give me an example of a policy in a previous job that you thought was unreasonable or that it didn't make sense.

Question: Describe a time when you really enjoyed your job. What types of things were you doing?

Tough Minded (Assertiveness)

Question: Tell me about a time when you became impatient with a customer because they were being unreasonable. What happened?

Question: Give me an example of a time when you provided good service to a customer even though you were having a bad day. How did you do it?

Question: Tell me about a time when you disagreed with a supervisor about how a customer situation should be handled. What did you do?

Conventional (Rules)

Question: Describe a time when you had to begin working and you had not really been trained yet and didn't know what you were supposed to do. What was it like?

Question: How have you handled a situation where there was no procedure in place?

Question: Tell me about a time a good customer wanted something that was not consistent with policy. What did you do?

Extroversion

Question: Tell me how you handle customers who like to chat with you even though you need to move on to the next customer.

Question: Give me an example of a time that a customer praised you for your ability to listen to them. What was the situation?

Question: Tell me about a time at work when you needed to take a break and get away from people for a while. What was it like?

Stable

Question: Tell me about a time when a customer was very upset and was being unreasonable. What did you do?

Question: Give me an example of how you have dealt with a lot of stress in your job every day. What did you do?

Question: Describe a time when you became very irritated with a customer and lost your cool. What happened?

Team

Question: Tell me about a time when you did something extraordinary in your job but were not given credit for it. What did you do?

Question: Give me an example of a time when a coworker needed your help with a customer. What was the situation and how did you handle it.

Question: Give me an example of when you gave great service to a customer and you were actually praised for it in front of the team. How did your coworkers respond?

Note: This report represents only a small part of the factors that can be helpful in determining job performance. It is not designed to specifically recommend or not recommend any individual for employment and the ultimate employment decision rests with the Employer.

© 2006 Psychometrics International